Campbell Schools Take Leadership In Tax Reduction

By I. R. Abbott, Dist. Supt.

It may be of general interest to the taxpayers of the Campbell community to know that the Campbell Grammar school was the first public institution in Santa Clara County, either school, city or county, to make a definite move toward a salary reduction in an effort to lighten the tax burden. More than a year ago the Board of Trustees notified the staff that a reduction would be necessary if conditions did not improve. Early this spring, at the suggestion of the Board, a committee of the teachers met with the Board and voluntarily agreed upon a new salary scale which seemed at that time equitable and fair.

This however was only the beginning of the economies planned and since effected by the Board. In studying the teacher's load it seemed impossible to diminish the staff by one without decreasing the efficiency of the school. This was a saving of one entire salary. This last week, when preparing the budget for the new school year, every possible economy was effected in the operation of the school plant which, with the others already noted, will enable the Board to reduce the tax rate from 49c to 30c. This means an actual reduction of the local school tax 39 per cent.

All of the above economies have been made, it is hoped, without impairing the efficiency of the school in the least. The work of each department will be carried on the same as in the past. The staff, with the exceptions of the one dismissed and Mr. Lloyd Berry, resigned, will remain the same. Mr. Berry's place has been filled by Mr. John Paviso who has just recently received his A. B. Degree from the San Jose State College, and who comes very highly recommended.

The school has undoubtedly one of the finest beginning Orchestra groups in the county, which is under the able direction of Mr. A. A. Thielke. The work of this group has been so outstanding that they have been asked to demonstrate in Sunnyvale, Almaden, Morgan Hill, as well as in San Jose, to show what can be done in the way of grammar school music.

CAFETERIA MANAGEMENT

The Cafeteria under the management of Miss Rowena Farman has been operated at actual cost to the student which is according to the state law. All funds taken are accounted for and put back into foods. Miss Farman has made a forty meals each day to children of and plans her menu from day to day with most exacting care. About 250 pupils avail themselves of this service each day.

Besides her regular work during the past year Miss Farman and her department, with the assistance of the school nurse, have prepared and served an average of forty meals each day to children of needy families in the community. This food was secured by donations and individuals as well as from the teachers themselves.

MEDITATION

Justice Court Report On Close Of Fiscal Year

Opponents of the Wright Act will it appears, bring this measure up at the next election for a test vote and possible repeal. The idea is, of course, to make national prohibition even more of a problem than it is, to so weaken enforcement that the people will be happy to repeal the celebrated 18th amendment.

Leaving all ordinary arguments for or against national prohibition aside, there is one point concerning the Wright Act for state support of national enforcement which is vitally interesting to every taxpayer. Fines collected under the Wright Act go to the counties. Bootlegger fines collected in the Campbell Justice Court for the fiscal year that close on June 30, for example, totaled $1,950.00.

This sum of nearly two thousand dollars is a contribution from the local court to the cause of lower taxes. Some courts in this county contribute, of course, far more than this. The grand total collected from bootleggers in this country runs into a sizable figure indeed. If the Wright Act is repealed this source of income will be lost. Tax payers will have to make up the difference.

Local Scout Troop Activities Slacken

During the summer season the scout activities have to be curtailed owing to the work in the orchards. The year closing has been one of great encouragement. Over 40 boys have registered and the average weekly attendance has been nearly 100 per cent. The cubs also have kept at about 25 in number this year.

The help of Mr. J. W. Knowles on the side of the administration has been of tremendous value and has enabled us to feel that at last we are beginning to get somewhere. It has been a long pull but the future for scouting in Campbell is very hopeful. This next September it is hoped that the Cub work can be organized along the modern lines as laid down by Headquarters. So far this has been impossible owing to the amount of extra work required. Any senior lads anxious to prove their ability in this work and also ready to spare time for such a splendid character building program among the younger boys should see the Scoutmaster, Rev. J. H. Bennett.

Nine boys this year spent a good time at the camp and came home full of enthusiasm. Saturday morning leaving Campbell at 9:30 the boys will be guests at the Nehi factory, San Jose. They will look over the plant and incidentally taste of its products. Later other trips will be arranged.

The boys and workers desire to express to the Scout committee its thanks for their cooperation during the past session.

Ainsley Packing Co. Running Cots Today

The J. C. Ainsley Packing Co., will begin its pack of 1932 apricots on Friday, July 1, to be followed in the regular course by pears and peaches. The apricots, all of which will come from the Santa Clara Valley, are a very fair crop with regard to size and better than usual as regards quality. It is yet too early to make any definite forecast as to the quality of the other fruits.

On account of the depressed business conditions throughout the world, the run this year, as is the case with all other canneries, will be considerably lighter than usual. It is not the intention to open the camp and as far as possible, preference of employment will be given to those who have worked there during previous seasons, and to local residents.

LOCAL THEATER OPENS WITH NEW SOUND MACHINE

The Campbell Theater re-opens tonight under new management. W. H. Radcliffe and D. F. MacLachlan are the new managers of the show house.

New sound apparatus has been installed and the interior of the building has been renovated to quite an extent. They plan to operate the theater every evening except Monday.

The picture being shown tonight and Friday night is "Cohens and Kellys in Hollywood" and also a Mickey Mouse cartoon. Saturday and Sunday will be shown one of the latest pictures, "The Mouthpiece." Tuesday and Wednesday "The Famous Ferguson Case."

WATSONVILLE MAN UNINJURED IN CAR SMASH THIS WEEK

The intersection of Campbell avenue and the Los Gatos-Santa Clara road was the scene of an automobile accident tonight at 6 o'clock.

W. A. Pierce of Watsonville was driving south on the highway and made the left turn to Campbell avenue a little too sharply and crashed into the car driven by M. L. Ward of San Jose who was driving north on the highway.

With Mr. Ward were his two cousins, Roy and Howard Shaw. Roy was the only one injured, receiving cuts on his face and a bruise on his head. No great harm was done to the Pierce car but the Ward car was considerably damaged.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Purmort and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith made a sight-seeing trip to Mt. Diablo last week. On a clear day one can see a plenty, more than a score of counties and Mt. Shasta's snow capped peak.

Herold Morton had the unfortunate accident of nearly severing his index finger from his hand while cleaning a saw at the lumber yard yesterday. However, he will not lose his finger and is back on the job again today.

Growers Urged To Help Make Plan Reality

By H. M. Shadle

Do you really understand what that heading signifies? Every part of the great prune industry united in one splendid grower controlled organization. We have NEVER had this opportunity before and every grower should realize what it means and not hesitate to sign the contract.

There is no other way out. We have tried competitive selling and found that it won't work. It isn't working in business of any kind and it positively will not work in the marketing of your fruit.

This plan calls for the orderly marketing of your crop, the elimination of off grade fruits, and the financial backing of the government farm loaning organizations. The set up is ideal and to make it workable and practical every grower and every organization interested must back it intelligently and with the idea to help and not hinder.

We must forget past differences—forget all the old animosities and come to this new organization with the desire to put it over. Just remember that there is a lot of good in your neighbor, and if you will put in as much time looking for that as you have been looking for the other thing, you will be surprised to see how easy the situation can be ironed out.

Remember that every phase of this problem has been worked over by growers like yourselves—they have had the support of the Gannett foundation, the Federal Farm Board and the Department of Agriculture of the University of California. They have spent months of time, plenty of money and have given unselfishly of everything they possess to find some way to help YOU. Why not give them the support they deserve and help put this plan into force.

Don't wait for the workers to come to you. Hunt them up or go into the headquarters in San Jose. There is no need of waiting. Do it NOW. Every signer makes it easier for the next.

Yours for a 100 per cent sign-up.

The following is a partial list of business men who signed as campaign workers:

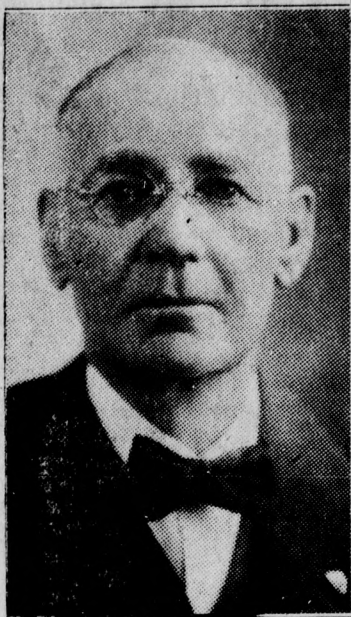

C. H. Whitman, H. M. Shadle, G. E. Farley, R. H. Hyde, W. H. Radcliffe, W. H. Morgan, J. W. Brewer, Horace Lea, Harold Morton, H. E. Hansen, H. C. Dr. Chas. H. Bruer, formerly of Gilroy, today opened offices in the Curry Building. The Doctor and Mrs. Bruer have taken the Billy Barlett house on Campbell avenue.

Mrs. William Ohlen Entertains Friends At Bridge Party

Mrs. William Ohlen presided over a very enjoyable bridge party last evening when the members of her club gathered at her home on the Los Gatos road. Mrs. Ohlen and Mrs. Julius Bachman divided honors for the first prize and Mrs. Earl Young received the consolation prize. A delicious lunch was served at midnight.

Those present were Mrs. Frank Anderson, Mrs. Horace Lea, Mrs. Floyd Bohnett, Mrs. Ethan Lanphear, Mrs. Richard Knappen, Mrs. Young, Mrs. Bachman and Mrs. Ohlen.

MRS. SALLIE LOUISE FEATHERS BURIED AT CYPRESS LAWN

Funeral services were held Tuesday for Mrs. Sallie Louise Feathers who died at her home near Los Gatos Monday, June 27 after an illness lasting over a year. Arrangements were made by the Place Funeral Home in Los Gatos and interment was made at Cypress Lawn Memorial Park.

She was a native of Wisconsin and came to Los Gatos in 1914. She and her family were well-known in Campbell and had many friends here. She was the widow of Alfred M. Feathers who died over a year ago. She was an active member of the Order of Eastern Star and also in Presbyterian circles.

She is survived by her children, Lyman, Mary and Robert of Los Gatos, Rowena Giberson and Clara Feathers of Los Angeles; Clifford Feathers of San Francisco; Dorothy Robinson and Louise Rodgers of Oakland; L. M. Feathers of Gilroy and a sister, Mrs. W. J. Parry of Los Angeles.

Mrs. W. G. McCaughey is visiting for a few days with her son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Kale in Stockton.

Miss Evelyn Voge returned Monday from Madison, Wisc., where she was graduated from the University with highest honors in journalism on June 20.

J. J. CARROLL ENTERS RACE FOR ASSEMBLY

J. J. Carroll as candidate for a post in Assembly District 31 declares he will not today submit a hat full of reforms, amendments, etc., to different departments of our State and National government. I will hold same for a later date when I am better informed, as I still consider this a period of readjustment. Ballahoo should not get one to first base.

I have not been drafted into this contest by any person, cliques, clans or societies as boasted by others, as this method leads to organized minority rule, the mother of a political racket, which today is a real menace. My candidacy affords a real opportunity for you to condemn or approve, by your ballot the continuing of strangle hold by organized minorities. Disprove the old notion "always was, always will be."

Question my sincerity of purpose and ability, but do not stop with me, as we are all of us, seeking this post, new timber.

David Reese Elected National Rotary Club Director

Rotary International at its twenty-third annual convention at Seattle elected as one of its five new United States directors our good friend David J. Reese, mayor of Ventura and past district governor of California Rotarians. The 1933 convention will be held in Boston and the 1934 or 1935 meet has been invited by Rio Janeiro, Brazil. Brother Reese is also a member of the Executive committee of the California Press Association and Past Grand Master of Masons of California.

MEMBER OF CALIFORNIA STATE PRESS ASSOCIATION

WHY TRADE IN CAMPBELL?

The "Buy now", "Buy here", "Buy at home" campaign process of energetic promotion in so many parts of the state, is receiving the customary amount of editorial endorsement and opposition. Up to date the pros are largely in the majority. They point to the fact that the movement is producing results; stimulating business, and accordingly, increasing employment. The antis take the ground that no lasting good will come from trying to induce people to buy now and buy at home when people will, for one reason or another, travel to foreign market places for purchases of their needs.

It has ceased to be a secret that some of us do buy our everyday necessities out of Campbell. When we are rebuked for doing so it is quite natural to reply: By what right, claim or title does the buying power of this trading area belong to Campbell merchants? The answer is: If any considerable number of Campbell people divert their buying power to competitive market places it will curtail the ability of others here to buy and employ. The most extreme exercise of "thrift" (if that is one of the reasons for outside buying) will scarcely compensate for such a situation as that will produce.

The Campbell residents buy in Campbell stores the more Campbell store keepers will be able to spend with others in Campbell. Each of us has something to sell—goods or services. The dollars we spend here enable others to buy the things we produce or deal in.

In these days when "mushroom" concerns are unloading their spurious stocks upon the public through the medium of doubtful "sales" it is our duty to our own community of which each of us is an integral part to aid in determining the reaction outside buying will have on us collectively.

Considering only as secondary the unwarranted expense involved in travel to and the annoying merry-go-round parking problem of other towns, Campbell offers countless other reasons for bidding for your patronage.

Campbell merchants have a definite interest in the welfare of Campbell. They have established themselves in business, their fixtures and stocks represent a substantial investment in finance and faith.

They have endeavored to study the likes and dislikes of Campbell people and are rapidly coordinating their efforts to please us. They offer standard quality goods at prices which have been marked at a new low level. The owners and clerks who serve you are Campbell residents. Unlike the merchants of larger towns who seek transient business because it eliminates reprimand and redress when a transaction proves unsatisfactory to the buyer, our Campbell merchant stands ready to rectify any mistake in purchase which may rise.

The special price announcements appearing in this issue of the Press vividly portrays a new low-level price and service era for buyer and seller.

What good it will accomplish remains solely with Campbell people, who, if en masse, will muster and centralize their tremendous territorial buying power in their own market place will witness a series of profitable changes immediately.

Beyond all shadow of doubt we will be enveloped in a new era of prosperity, business back on the road to normalcy, Campbell property values greatly enhanced, unemployment decreased and a new and better brand of fraternalism in evidence. Campbell will be pointed out as the birthplace of better business days.

TAX REDUCTION, AGAIN

The Santa Clara County Tax association is out with the pruning hook again in its recommendations to the county supervisors for reduction of taxes for the coming year.

That the tax burden has become a serious problem during these times of curtailed income cannot be denied and that a reduction of taxes on real estate under present conditions is also universally admitted.

The plans for accomplishing reduction include curtailment of salaries of teachers, judges and all other public officials. In all this tax excitement it is not a question of how much we can cut, but how far we can go.

Campbell taxpayers have learned from past experience that when an election is in the offing the proverbial soap-box orator crops up with suggestive cures for our tax ailments. This is the time for sane, sensible thinking and for the drafting of the best minds into the study of our tax troubles.

Should we go on record as favoring a low standard of living by cutting the pay of our public servants to a ridiculously low figure?

The art of pruning no longer belongs to the confines of the orchard but is rapidly wending its way into the heart of business and government. The recommendations of the tax association would foretell the piddling arrival of the time when people of the world would be living on ants and hardtack.

A recent survey made in Alameda County reveals the effect a county lary cut would have on tax reduction.

A salary cut for all county employees would naturally affect merchant buying power of regular paying customers, yet would effect a ten per cent tax reduction for them.

Unfortunately many taxpayers believe that a ten per cent cut in the county payroll would result in a ten per cent cut in their tax bills. According to the Alameda county survey the tax reduction would be but 4 of 1 per cent.

Business organizations in the million dollar class would profit by a reduction of hundreds of dollars while the average home owner would alize a saving in his tax bill of an amount stated to be less than one dollar annually.

Is that good business for the small merchant, home owner and wage-earner?

PRACTICAL HEALTH HINTS

Dr. W. I. Merrill

The Clinical or "Fever" thermometer in the hands of an intelligent individual is of the greatest assistance to the average family. By its use one may know the correct temperature of a child or adult, and thus determine accurately just how serious a condition exists in any acute onset. One should remember that the body temperature is effected by means other than illness and in the absence of other manifestations too much credence should not be given to temperature alone, as temperature is only one symptom. However, the sudden elevation or lowering of temperature in an individual previously normal, should be regarded as a warning signal and temperature readings should be made at frequent intervals to ascertain if the condition is persistent or merely transient. Be sure to shake the Mercury in the thermometer each time before recording temperature. A persistent change from the normal reading of 98.6 degrees, continuing over a long period, even tho the change may be slight, calls for careful investigation, for it is in these cases that the Thermometer aids most and many times leads the investigator to the source of the trouble. Do not trust to your memory but make a written record of the temperature readings and the time of the readings.

MOUTH HYGIENE

By Dr. J. E. Fanning

Today we hear much about the necessity of creating an appreciation and a desire for more and better dentistry.

Various means of advertising is largely responsible for this. Still about 70 per-cent of the population do not practice mouth hygiene or have dental treatment.

The need for dental treatment is very much on the increase. This is an age of overly-refined foods, and the direct result is increasing soft tissue (gum) disturbances.

The public schools and public clinics are greatly aiding dental education. Children are taught proper dental hygiene and their mouths are regularly examined under our present schooling system.

The dentist is probably the only person that is trying to work himself out of a job, and will undoubtedly succeed in a few generations if we can teach the people more about diet and mouth hygiene.

"BLESSED ARE THEY
WHO ARE GLAD TO HAVE TIME TO SPARE
FOR GOD"

THE WATCH TOWER

By Reverend J. H. Bennett,
Pastor, Campbell Congregational Church

"Thou shalt love the Lord thy God—with all thy MIND." There are too many good people to whom the Love of God is a mere sentiment. This cannot be. Neither in the Bible nor in human experience is it true. Love must beget understanding. Understanding is fundamental to love.

"With all thy mind." Thoughtful people today looking out upon the world are not astonished. They see things passionately and profoundly wrong. The same thoughtless brutality in the natural man that slew the Christ in the days of His flesh are with us now in the days of His Spirit. Things must move onwards either to the fulfillment of truth or on towards the inevitable catastrophe in which the innocent and the guilty are alike linked together, in the night, until in the grey of the morning, when the storm has abated, we see truth sitting amongst the ruins.

"Thou shalt love the Lord thy God—with all thy mind." Mind alone is not enough. Any attempt to illustrate this great truth from the Russian experiment would fail because of the contradicting emphases, both negative and positive that one sees in that situation. This much can be said, briefly, that in that land where the love of religion is so dominant, the control exercised by a minority whose background of political suffering and religious tyranny has forbidden any understanding of the LOVE OF GOD, we do see "with all my mind" meaning to them the betterment of society, the realization of happiness, and the struggle against disease, ignorance poverty and ugliness in all its forms. Yet ugly things cannot be dispelled by ugliness but only by love. Will not the unborn millions of Russia yet rise to praise God because He has allowed men to use their wilful minds in a struggle for freedom which inevitably is a struggle towards God?

I am thinking of the fine results which are already emerging from the struggle through which the world is now passing; a new humility, a new shadow of responsibility, a new wisdom. Leaving apart all theological nicenesses or denominational differences every sincere mind must be conscious that the deepest wisdom of this world stands or falls in Christ. That the real safety of mankind lies in making Him, as He has never yet been made, the King of Kings and Lord of Lords, the moral judge and conscience of all peoples.

We are all tired of talking about this depression. It is more than a depression. It is the beginning of a revival, a revival of seriousness. Those fine things that have been allowed to fall by the roadside, are again being found by men and women who are anxious to save and rebuild this world not according to the selfish pattern of yesterday but according to the thought that is only possible to men who are faced with stern necessity.

Today voices are to be heard pregnant with truth. Voices before never heard. Where were these men before the storm we ask? Why after the ship is wrecked do we hear of the rocks, why were we not told of those disastrous tides? Because we never asked, neither would we have believed if we had been told. "Fools and slow of heart to believe the prophets" is true of this generation as of others. We thought we knew, we chattered in the darkness and amused ourselves then the flood came. Yet it is never too late with God. We belong to Him. The way is always open to them "Who love the Lord thy God—with all their mind."

Too long have we been forgetting that the sins that make God mourn are not always those things that we commonly call sins. The thought of today is turned to guard of liberty. Then must follow the instruction of the mind and the enlargement of the sympathies which is only saying that one thing leads to another; wrong to wrong or right to right, be it in individuals or nations. He that works for his own rights on this planet is still an animal, he that works for the rights of those he loves is a good man but he that works for those whom he loves and also for those whom he does not know so that they too may taste of the fruits of life, after he has gone, that man is touching the hem of the garments of Christ. "God is light." Faith stands to reason. Those who love God with all their minds are those who will grow in a steady commonsense, in forbearance, kindness, and unselfish industry.

Awareness that we can go wrong is the first step towards salvation in its fullest meaning. Perpetual vigilance is the safe-low the instruction of the mind and the enlargement of the sympathies which is only saying that one thing leads to another; wrong to wrong or right to right, be it in individuals or nations. He that works for his own rights on this planet is still an animal, he that works for the rights of those he loves is a good man but he that works for those whom he loves and also for those whom he does not know so that they too may taste of the fruits of life, after he has gone, that man is touching the hem of the garments of Christ. "God is light." Faith stands to reason. Those who love God with all their minds are those who will grow in a steady commonsense, in forbearance, kindness, and unselfish industry.

Your Burden Bearer

Mrs. Ada C. Bohrman, Pastor
Campbell Pentecostal Mission

In these days of depression with cares and burdens pressing down upon us from every side, what a comfort it is to know of One, the lowly Nazarene, who promised to bear our burdens. "Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy-laden, and I will give you rest." Matt. 11:28. The way may seem rough and the burden heavy but the Word of God says "Cast thy burden upon the Lord and He shall sustain thee: He shall never suffer the righteous to be moved." Ps. 55:22. Did you ever stop to consider just what constituted that load of care you are being burdened with from day to day? Worry, no doubt, is common to us all—Worry over that which has already happened and worry over that which will occur in the future.

"The hardest load we have to bear is the labor and strength that's lost in building the bridge with toil—some care O'er the stream that is never crossed."

The past was gone yesterday and tomorrow's cares may never arrive. Fear, another part of that heavy burden drives away faith and leads one into unsurmountable difficulties. "Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed; for I am thy God: I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee; yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness." Isa. 41: 10. Pride, sensitiveness, unrest, a hasty temper, a sharp tongue, these all work together to make that burden too heavy to be born alone, but our Blessed Lord wants to carry our burdens, for He cares for us. "Casting all your care upon Him, for He careth for you." 1 Pet. 5:7. Simply cast it all upon Jesus, your great Burden-bearer, and let Him work out His own way in your life as Phillip Brooke has portrayed in these helpful words: "The sharp little vexations and the briars that catch and fret, Why not take all to the Helper who has never failed us yet? Tell Him about the heartache and tell Him the longings too; Tell Him the baffled purpose when we scarce know what to do; Then, leaving all our weakness with the One divinely strong, Forget that we bore the burden and carry away the song."

Build the Community Around the Church

JONES used to have frequent evening grouchies. But not any more. Since Mrs. Jones put in the new Crane Automatic Water Heater, he takes a quick warm shower and settles into a chair, nerves soothed, muscles relaxed, at peace with the world. "I guess that was a pretty smart idea, after all, about that heater," he says.

For you as well as for the Joneses, a Crane Premier or Keystone Water Heater will give the maximum in hot water comfort, the minimum in attention or trouble. Let us show you.

CAMPBELL SCHOOLS

In addition to the school located on Campbell avenue there is maintained a staff of four teachers at the county hospital to help along the physically less fortunate. There has been an average enrollment of about seventy-five scattered in the general hospital, the tuberculosis ward, and the preventorium. These are instructed in their regular school work so that when they return home they can carry on with their regular class, and not forced to drop back and thus lose a half year or a year in their education.

There is a fine spirit of cooperation among all the employees, from the custodians of the buildings and grounds right up through the ranks. They are determined that when school opens again in September to tackle their individual jobs and do all possible to maintain the high standard for which and which have made them the most popular schools in the county at the present time.
